Keep it before the people, that I told the people six months ago, that I intended to run through my campaign, with my motto to give each and every individual value received, for their valuable support, giving the Ladies a fine opportunity to exercise there fashionable rights, as well as the gentlemen, and since that time thousands have shown their good judgment by coming and demonstrating the truth of my assertion. I tell you Creech's is the place. And permit me to return my sincere thanks for your very liberal and valuable patronage for the last twenty-five years. I hope by strict attention to business and honest dealing, giving each and every one the worth of their money that I will continue to receive a liberal share of your patronage. The rest of my talking I shall do at my place of business which is Creech's corner Fayetteville Street Raleigh

LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over	$10,000.00
Annual Income,	6,000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities,	2,000,000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!.
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium, or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is pecuniary advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1869.

THE CAUSE OF SECRET SOCIETIES.

This country is no longer governed by the Constitution and laws, but by secret oath bound political societies.

At December term of Wilson court, some dozen negroes were indicted and convicted for whipping a colored man. The offence was that he had voted the Democratic ticket.

At night these league men who associated themselves together under a charter and laws sent them by Gov. Holden as Grand President, went to the house of the negro who had voted the Democratic ticket, took him out of bed, tied and gave him 150 lashes.

Judge Thomas, of the League, presided at the trial. The counsel for the prosecution offered to prove that the negro was whipped by order of the League, and Judge Thomas refused to hear the evidence.

If Democrats or Ku Klux had in secret or public meeting resolved to whip a Republican for voting against them, would the Judge have refused to hear the evidence? We say emphatically, no; and if he did he should be deposed from his judgment seat as one unfit to administer justice.

Notwithstanding this evidence was ruled out, the jury convicted, and the Judge sentenced the convicted to only 60 and 30 days in imprisonment. Such a sentence for such a crime will stand on the docket a lasting reproach to Judge Thomas.

The negroes had been in jail but a few days when the Grand President of the League, signing himself Governor, pardoned all of them, and they went out of jail rejoicing that they could take a free man out of his bed and house and give him 150 lashes for voting against the League, and the President of the League could save them from punishment.

George Johnson is a respectable old man of Franklin county, about 75 years of age. Six armed negroes went to his house to arrest two freedmen, Frank and John, because they had quit attending the League meetings. The six negroes went by order of their League. Mr. Johnson met them at the yard gate. He told the League gentlemen if Frank and John wished to go he had no objection, but they should not be forced to go. One of the armed men presented his gun at Mr. Johnson. Johnson fired on the negro and drove them off.—They fled to the woods.

These six Leaguers were indicted in Franklin Court. Judge Watts, a Leaguer Judge presiding, in tender compassion for the Leaguers, fined them $5 each.

And this we call Republican liberty, all under a new Constitution. May the Lord save us from all secret political societies.

NORTHERN VISITORS.

It is pleasing to record that gentlemen from the North who visit the South with an eye to investing in lands and manufactures, and indeed in other branches of industry, are gratified to find our people civil, kindly disposed, and ready to greet them as citizens. They have been so thoroughly misled by the gross slanders that have been published about the people of the South, that they are utterly astonished and most agreeably disappointed when they find peace, urbanity, and good order so generally prevailing among us. They come prepared to find our people a set of cut throats, with only abuse and insult upon our tongues; but they meet with only courtesy, and many are the recipients of that unostentatious hospitality which the true gentleman so well understands how to extend. Several gentlemen from the North have recently visited our city, and we are glad to learn that the impression made upon them was altogether favorable.

We repeat what we have said more than once in these columns: we cordially invite well disposed citizens of the North to move into our State. They can find profitable investments, and may rest assured that from all good citizens they will receive a welcome at once kind and cordial. No one who is well-disposed and attends to his own business, and not the business of others, is in danger of insult or molestation. A Northern man in Raleigh is far safer from violence and abuse than he would be in any Northern City. Here he will receive from the genteel and clever an interchange of those civilities to which every good citizen is entitled, whether it be in the South or in the North.

THE NEW YORK TIMES ON GRANT.

This influential and able Radical paper in common with others of the same party, has become much dissatisfied with the course of General Grant in appointing to office so many incapable men. It says:

"The expectation which was general at the outset of the administration, and was participated by the President's declarations on the subject, that faithful and efficient officers would not be disturbed, no matter to what party they belonged, but especially if they were Republicans, has been grievously disappointed. Some of the best men in the service, both at home and abroad, whose record is unimpeachable and whose political orthodoxy is unquestioned, have been summarily removed and forced to give place to inferior, but more clamorous applicants. In truth, the old style of making appointments, by accepting the pressure and dictation of politicians as the controlling influence, has been adhered to pretty closely. The sweeping reforms, so loudly promised and so eagerly expected, seem to have been indefinitely postponed.

California has nearly a million and a half dollars lying idle in its treasury.

GENERAL MILES.

Many men crave notoriety and some obtain it. Some are like Milton's monstrous creation; or at least, they are for reigning on earth, although they should serve at least in the dark world below. They have no genuine pity for those who are smitten, and delight in "a little brief authority," as if earth were the pavement of Heaven, or the puppit of the semblance of power were, indeed, the ruler of a universe. We never saw General Miles but once. We know not, personally, the man. We knew him only by the reputation he achieved as the unfeeling warder of the Great Captain at Fortress Monroe.

We do not propose to write his history or to portray his character. We mean only to let a Northern pen draw the lineaments of his character, and leave the rest with God and history. We only add, that Gen. Miles will live, in history, but it will be as the man who persecuted and fretted the noble spirit of a man who was a prisoner and, therefore, entitled to his commiseration rather than his petty persecutions.

Reader, take the following. It is not the offspring of Southern hatred, but it is the fervid utterance of a Northern writer who could discern character and hate wrong.—He is writing of the late Gen. Henry S. Burton. It appeared in the New York World:

"General Burton's character as a distinguished artillery officer, educated with all the accomplishments of his profession, and his services during both the Mexican war and our own sad strife, are well known and universally conceded. But he has other claims on his countrymen, especially on those North and South who think that no where do the gentle virtues of our nature seem more beautiful than when they brighten the arid and wasted surface over which men's wicked passions are in conflict. It is the green leaf amid the cinders and scoria of Aden. Such traits did the lamented soldier show when, at the close of the war, he became, by no choice of his, but by the mere working of routine, the commander of the prison house at Fortress Monroe and the custodian of the fallen President of the Confederate States. Mr. Davis was General Burton's prisoner for nearly two years, and while during that time no discipline was relaxed, no vigilance abated, the true soldier thought it his duty to treat the prisoner like a gentleman and a Christian. In this there was a marked contrast with what had been done before. The man, Miles—Napoleon, we believe, was the inappropriate prefix—was one of that spawn of brutes whom civil war eminently generates, who, fresh from being badly beaten in one of the last contests of the war, when on the 7th April, 1865 at High Bridge, Mahone thrashed him soundly, took a spiteful pleasure in tormenting a Confederate victim.—He thoroughly enjoyed the execution of the Halleck Dana-Stanton order to manacle Mr. Davis. To him was the duty congenial to march the prisoner about between two armed soldiers, and to post sentinels where they should most thoroughly disturb his rest. It was the Massachusetts Puritan tormenting the Pequod captive chief. No single act of kindness or generous consideration broke the dead level of his petty and continuous tyranny. Not so the gallant West Point man, the true and regular soldier. General Burton executed his orders faithfully, strictly, sternly. He gave no irregular privilege or indulgence; but when his superiors permitted him to relax severity, it gave him pleasure, and he did it gracefully. Memories of the past prot cted the captive chieftain. He could not fail to recall the time when Jefferson Davis was the honored (no one ever so much so) head of the Military Department of the government. He remembered, for he was there himself the gallant Mississippi charge at Buena Vista: he recalled the day when Mr. Davis's bitterest persecutors of that day—he Meigses, and Baches, and Emorys, and Popes, and Hallecks—could not sufficiently crook the very supple hinges of their knees in order that some kind of Washington thrift or patronage or job should follow their fawning. We do not doubt that to no one beyond the reach of immediate relations and friends will the news of General Burton's death give more sorrow than to him who once a prisoner of war is now an exile.

TAX MATTERS.

We learn that some of our readers are alarmed lest such trades as those of blacksmiths, carpenters, &c, are specially taxed by the State. Such persons only pay on their net income, which is arrived at in the following way:

1st. No receipts are counted, where they are derived from property taxed in some other way, i. e., a farmer does not pay income tax on the receipts from his farm, because his lands, horses, &c., are taxed on their value.

2nd. The tax payer must list his gross receipts from any other source than property taxed. From this amount are deducted, 1st, $500; 2nd, the expenses incurred in making the income, including in their expenses "family expenses" to the amount of $1,000.

This is our understanding of the law.—We have them at least $1,500 deducted, and therefore we imagine Mr. Jenkins' Treasury will not get much replenishment from this source. The poor lawyers, making four or five thousand dollars a year, and a few salaried men will suffer some—hardly anybody else from this source.

The Charlotte Times is at fault, in regard to the North Carolina Personal and Real Estate Agency of this city. The gentlemen connected with it are all native born, and are doing, as we verily believe, a straight forward legitimate business. It is a joint stock concern—with $130,000 worth of stock taken by responsible persons—and we consider its success as a fixed fact. For their second drawing, next Fall, they have choice of a large amount of Real Estate, in different sections of the State.

Among the many visitors to our country, for the purpose of buying real estate, we are pleased to notice Col. Hall, of Wilmington. We hope he will determine to remain as he is known to be a gentleman of most excellent character, both personally and politically.—Living Present.

DISSATISFACTION IN HAYTI.—The New York Herald's Port au Prince correspondence states that great dissatisfaction exists in the Haytien capital at the idea of a colored representative of the United States being sent there. They think they should have a white man.

The Senate, in executive session yesterday, postponed the further consideration of the San Juan treaty until December next.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LETTER FROM NORFOLK HARBOR.

OCEAN HOME, PORTSMOUTH, VA., April 23, 1869.

Editor of the Sentinel:—There is very little material out of which to manufacture an interesting correspondence from this point, just now, and you must be content if I confine myself to a few facts relative to the commercial interests and progress of this great harbor.

Through the unceasing and well directed efforts of a people of the most indomitable energy and perseverance, business in Norfolk is growing day by day, notwithstanding the great want of a well devised system of internal improvements, and new lines of inland transportation. This want of inland communication renders Norfolk less able to compete with her powerful rivals, Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia. Then we are apt to take into account to reach the country, East, South and West. Norfolk is restricted to two lines of railway, one of which cannot be said to be identified with her interest to any extent worth considering. In addition to these there are the two canals opening into the waters of Eastern Carolina, the Dismal Swamp, and Albemarle and Chesapeake, neither of which is of sufficient importance to build up a city, or feed the commerce of an empire. These facts are appreciated here, but the want of capital prevents the application of a remedy, and the desired improvement must be long, and I fear, indefinitely delayed. But Norfolk pluck and energy permits no relaxation of effort, and while Baltimore and New York are enjoying unprecedented and easily acquired prosperity, Norfolk merchants are hard at work deserving the success they desire, and fully meriting all they receive.

The reader must not infer that the trade of Norfolk is falling off from what it has been at any previous time, for such is not the case. On the contrary the business of the last season was remarkably good, far in excess of that of any former period in her history. We find this trade growing every season, and new houses constantly springing up. Norfolk now has a very respectable wholesale trade, her facilities far exceeding of the general opinion of those at a distance. As a grocery market it is not inferior to Baltimore, while other lines are well represented, such as Dry Goods, Ready Made Clothing, Boots, Shoes and Hats, Hardware, Cutlery, Crockery Ware, &c. In addition to these a large Notion House, the Yancey Brothers and the extensive Hat House of McMurdo, Eastham & Co., all Richmond men, have been established during the past season. There are other new features daily developing themselves in the domestic commerce of Norfolk, that are highly pleasing and encouraging to her friends and supporters, among which your correspondent reckons himself.

I am compelled to declare that, in my opinion, the Commission business here is not conducted as it might be, for the advantage of the general business of the community. I think there is a want of system here, which other cities of like, and even smaller pretensions, have found it impossible to do without. I refer to Commission Brokerage. In Wilmington we find the business transacted through the Brokers, and there is no city in the country where business is better conducted, or more to the general satisfaction of the producing customs. The excellent system by which the Wilmington merchants have always regulated their commerce, and their superior business qualifications, have had much to do with their success, notwithstanding the want of natural advantages possessed by other commercial cities of the country, and there is good reason to hope that our own seaport will not always be the least important of her Southern sisters. I think that in many respects, the one referred to in particular, Norfolk would do well to imitate Wilmington.

The business season is over and trade is quite dull. Ample time is now afforded the merchants to perfect their system and organize for the coming Fall trade, which with present planting prospects, promises to be quite heavy, and as a fast friend of Norfolk, and the earnest advocate of everything in anywise pertaining to her prosperity, I have alluded to this subject in the hope that the suggestions, contained above, will be received in the kind spirit in which they are offered, and that such course of action will obtain as will best serve the end.

The hotel accommodations of Norfolk and Portsmouth are unsurpassed, and constitute a leading feature in the attractions of the two places, which I regard in a commercial point of view as one, and closely united, that one must share the prosperity of the other.

Mr. B. F. Briggs, of Wilson, has opened the "Ocean House," and is making a first class Hotel of it. The "Ocean," in former days enjoyed an enviable reputation, which will speedily be restored under the management of Mr. Briggs. A pleasant home is here offered to North Carolinians visiting either of the cities, and Portsmouth has done well in securing a gentleman of such standing and deserved popularity as that with which Mr. Briggs comes among them.

At present there is not much wholesale business done in Portsmouth, but such an eligible site for a city of commercial greatness cannot long remain unappreciated, and the time may come when Portsmouth will be the leading city of the two. Standing on elevated ground, a fine back country to sustain it and ample water front of any required depth, it is indeed a most eligible site for improvement, and having wide well laid off streets, it is one of the prettiest cities in the South. The price of property is, I understand, low, and fine inducements for investments are offered. It is only necessary to direct the attention of capitalists to this fact and the many other inducements presented, to give Portsmouth the impetus of capital.

The press of the two cities consists of the Journal, Virginian and Day Book of Norfolk, and Transcript, of Portsmouth, to all of whom I am indebted for special acts of kindness, and professional courtesies. No Southern press is more liberally sustained than this, which is the best evidence of the sagacity, energy and enterprise of the people.

That proverbial gallantry which has characterized the writer throughout the entire period of his connection with the press, will not permit him to close this letter without remarking the female beauty of the cities by the sea, notwithstanding a lately developed "preference," and the wish of incurring imperial displeasure.

No two cities of like population, can boast of an equal share of female grace and loveliness with Norfolk and Portsmouth, and if this information can invest them with an additional charm, or add to the interest of the two places, it is given with more pleasure than is generally derived from telling the simple truth. If you have arrived at that time of life when "beauty no pleasure brings" you may perhaps find it in your heart to excuse the undignified rapture of one still on the shady side of thirty himself, good looking, though solitary, unappreciated and forlorn.

SPERRY.

RICHMOND, April 22.—Gen. Canby issued an order to-day requiring all persons holding office in Virginia who were elected to the same, and who have not taken the test oath, to take it now. This will vacate a number of offices.

GENERAL SHERMAN AND MR. LINCOLN—Disposition of the Latter Towards the Rebels at the Time of the Surrender.—In a late number of the N. Y. Tribune there appeared a notice of Mr. Healy's picture representing the interview between Mr. Lincoln, Gen. Grant, Admiral Porter and Gen. Sherman, which repeats substantially the account published some time ago in Wilke's Spirit of the Times, explanatory of that interview, and attributing to Mr. Lincoln himself the paternity of the terms to Gen. Johnston's army at Durham, in April, 1855. This notice has elicited a letter from General Sherman, which he says he is dictated by an unwillingness that the odium of those terms (if there be any odium, which he doubts,) should rest upon Mr. Lincoln. Whilst he thinks Admiral Porter's account of the interview upon which the statement in the Wilk s' paper was founded, may have preserved the words used in the interview more exactly than his own recollection, inasmuch as the Admiral made a note of the conversation, and he did not, he is clear as to the impression left on his mind afterward. He was, at the time of the interview, March, 1865, anticipating an attempt of Gen. Lee to join his forces to General Johnston's, and make an attack on him in the open country. He adds:

"Mr. Lincoln, in hearing us speak of a final bloody battle, which I then thought would fall on me near Raleigh, did exclaim more than once that blood enough had already been shed, and he hoped that the war would end without any more. We spoke of what was to be done with Davis, other party leaders, and the rebel army, and he left me under the impression that all he asked of us was to dissipate these armies, and get the soldiers back to their homes anyhow, the quicker the better, leaving him free to apply the remedy and the restoration of civil law. He (Mr. Lincoln) surely left upon my mind the impression warranted by Admiral Porter's account, that he had long thought of his course of action when the rebel armies were out of his way, and that he wanted to get civil governments reorganized at the South, the quicker the better, and strictly conforming with our general system.

I had been absent so long that I presumed, of course, that Congress had enacted all the laws necessary to meet the event of peace, so long expected, and the near approach of which must then have been seen by the most obtuse; and all I aimed to do was to remit the rebel army surrendering to me to the conditions of the laws of the country as they then existed. At the time of Johnston's surrender, at Durham, I drew up the terms with my own hands, Breckinridge had nothing at all to do with them, more than to discuss their effect, and he knew they only applied to the military; and he forthwith proceeded to make his escape from the country, a course that I believe Mr. Lincoln wished that Mr. Davis should have succeeded in effecting, as well as all the other leading Southern politicians, against whom public indignation always turned with a feeling far more intense than against Generals Lee, Johnston, and other purely military men.

I repeat that, according to my memory, Mr. Lincoln did not expressly name any specific terms of surrender, but he was in that kindly and gentle frame of mind that would have induced him to approve fully what I did, excepting, probably, he would have interlined some modifications, such as recognizing his several proclamations antecedent, as well as the laws of Congress, which would have been perfectly right and acceptable to me and to all parties."

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor:—Will you be kind enough to inform the public, as to the especial locality in "Massatoosits" from which our Superintendent of Public Instruction hails? Will you also give us some information upon the subject of his former prominent positions, prior to his carpet-bag North Carolina migration, and consequent present official position?

Was he the Superintendent of Public Instruction in "Massatoosits," or, was he an abecedarian in a log-cabin school house somewhere in the interior of "Massatoosits?" Is he a common English scholar?—Can he parse the first word in "Milton's Paradise Lost?"

I will not trouble you, Mr. Editor, to inform us concerning his acquaintance with ancient and foreign languages. But, I would like to know, if he and his well-bred and very promising son together, have ever earned as much in any five years of their valuable lives, as their present salaries amount to for one year; not to include the implied attending perquisites one of the attractive features of their present office.

By giving the information herein asked for, you will greatly oblige many who have long been propounders of the above questions, but as yet have received no satisfactory answers.

The deep interest felt in the subject of education at present, and the prosperous condition of the University (once the pride of North Carolina) coupled with the position occupied by the aforesaid caballer, and adventurer, who, like many others of his kind propose to live sumptibus publicis, render this subject one of vital importance to the people of North Carolina.

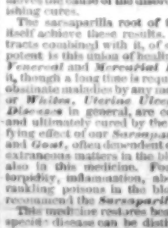
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be reduced by the subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, Scandinavian habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor find invulnerable to the importance of an efficient remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulation of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those anomalous symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that youthful life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Mercury, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicines. Complete gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

COTTON.—We note as an evidence that Spring is, indeed, upon us, that cotton is already up in this city. There is a lot planted in cotton, in which the plants are lifting their young heads above the surrounding waste.

OUR city is beginning to look more attractive to the eye. The foliage is out to a considerable extent, and some of our chief streets present now a more beautiful appearance. Plat and green trees will make any place pleasing to the eye.

BOB BLEDSOE, colored, invaded the premises of Wm. Upchurch, Jr., and appropriated to his own use a set of double harness. He was fortunately discovered by one of the police, who pursued him so closely that he was forced to drop his plunder and make tracts as fast as he could in order to effect his escape. This he accomplished.—He is now at large.

MESSRS. UPCHURCH & DODD have bought a part of the Planters' Hotel and will soon erect a large brick store upon the site.

A CAPITAL WANT.—More than twenty years ago we were a school boy in this city. Our old master was J. M. Lovejoy.—Raleigh, since then, has improved considerably in many respects. In population it has increased, but only some two thousand, we imagine. In appearance it has improved too, but not as much as we would be glad to see. But in business it has more than quadrupled. We should not be surprised to learn, if we had accurate statistics, if a comparison of the trade of Raleigh in 1845, when we first came to the city as a student, (it was not our first visit by any means, for here we first saw the light on our natal morn,) with the trade of Raleigh now, would reveal the fact, that there is more trade here in one day than was here in one week in those balmy June days, when o'er shadowed by no cares and anxieties.

But we have above written—"a capital want." What is it? It is this. Let our citizens who own favorable building lots on desirable streets have erected as soon as possible, neat and substantial dwellings with accommodations for families of various sizes and with various means. If those interested most would have a large influx of inhabitants they must evince that sort of public spirit that is absolutely necessary and which has been found so successful in other cities. Those who will not build themselves should exhibit a willingness to sell lots to those who will build, and at liberal prices.

We believe that a hundred good dwellings, built substantially and neatly, would be tenanted before two years. We know something of such experiments, and we doubt not that the population of Raleigh would reach 10 000 within five years, if the necessary dwellings were erected in convenient and pleasant portions of the city.—High rents and poor, "shabby genteel" houses will repel many persons who might otherwise be glad to become citizens.—Why not have a company of capitalists formed for the purpose of improving our city, who will erect, within the next twelve months, fifty or more tasteful and comfortable residences, differing in size, from the neat cottage with three rooms to larger building with five, six or eight? There are excellent lots all over the city, if the owners can be prevailed upon to sell.

THE proof reader, &c, has left the city, having received a telegram summoning him to the bed-side of one of his children, who is very dangerously ill.

"SPERRY."—We invite attention to the interesting communication from our interesting correspondent, "Sperry." We will be glad to hear from him often.

THE estate of Lord Townly, who died in England, was $94,000,000, fifteen years ago, with the interest accumulated. He died without an heir in England, and his only heir being Mary Townley, his niece and cousin of Queen Elizabeth, who embarked to this country and married John Laurence, who lived and died in Maryland, leaving several heirs some of whom live in this State and in this city, Capt. J. G. Hester, President of the N. C. R. & P. E. Agency, whose mother was a Laurence, is one of the heirs, and we understand, is preparing to employ council to obtain the requisite documents to procure this large fortune. The money is now in the Bank of England awaiting the order of the legal heirs.

Take it Easy.—It is no uncommon thing for people with plenty of "go" in them to go—to the bad.

STATE NEWS.

One of the most terrific thunder storms visited this section last Sunday night that we have witnessed in a long time. The lightning struck two trees in the yard of the Baptist Church, of this town, and it likewise struck a couple of trees near Connally's church, in this vicinity.—Milton Chronicle.

The granary and stables of Mrs. E. J. Robertson, two miles distant from Milton, were destroyed Sunday night by the lightning striking and firing the granary. We hear that Mrs. Robertson lost all of her grain, and quantity of provender—carriage and wagon harness, and that her horses made a very narrow escape. No insurance that we hear of.

The Granary of Mr. Wilkins Bruce, of this vicinity, was also struck by lightning; doing no other damage than shivering his javelin.—Ib.

DECLINED.—We are authentically told that Gen. Rutherford was offered the position of Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, but the aspiring hero scorned the offer, and plainly intimated his disgust for any office inferior to that of U. S. Marshal for the district of North Carolina.

The General fought hard for this position, but fate was against him, and the Government preferred a native scallawag to an enthusiastic carpet bagger. In fact, we had no preference in the matter, and extend our sympathy to the defeated party, who "in his way" is a very clever fellow.—Wil. Star.

CONSISTENCY AND FAIRNESS.—The Raleigh Standard, of Monday's date, contained an article denouncing the unfairness with which it is treated by Democratic papers, who copy articles from the columns of that paper without giving proper credit. The same sheet, in Tuesday's issue, shows its consistency and sense of fairness by stealing three articles from the local columns of the Journal of Commerce.

The Standard man should "pluck the beam," etc.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

SOUTHERN RESIDENCES.—We yesterday had the pleasure of examining one of the neatest and most convenient residences erected recently in our whole Southern country. It is the new dwelling house, now nearly completed, of Maj. Jno. W. Cameron, corner of Sixth and Princess streets. Unostentatious in design, yet neatly furnished, it presents a decidedly rich and handsome appearance, while the interior possesses every arrangement that convenience could suggest. We examined the premises at the invitation of Mr. James F. Post, whose taste and design, as the contractor, is prominently displayed in the building. We were struck with the measure in which room had been economized in arrangement, and I could but conclude that it is precisely the idea which our Southern people in their changed circumstances and relations should adopt. We want no more of those large ill-formed houses where it is impossible for servants to be within call, and nothing is at hand. We must have less space and manage it better—adopt the Yankee idea and mode of convenience, see that everything is so arranged as to be under the eye of the house-keeper and all so adapted as to absorb as little possible trouble in the performance of her household duties. We want fewer servants and more convenience, so that one servant can be able to perform the tasks of two or three, which, are generally more in the way of each other around our houses than of real benefit. Our people are no longer encumbered with slaves and they require a change of system.—Wil. Journal.

A VENOMOUS CALUMNY.—A. H. Jones, who occupies the seat of the Hon. Plato Durham in the present Congress, has just delivered himself, after much straining, of a speech before that body, brimming over with the most atrocious calumnies against the people of the South. To read that speech—and we confer upon it an unmerited dignity when we call it a speech—one would suppose the whole South was nothing but a not-bed of outlaws and assassins, prowing about with pistols, knives, and bludgeons, to massacre radicals, and that there were neither Law nor order in the land. Nothing is farther from the truth. There is less crime to-day in the South than any other portion of the Union. If we feel inclined to "sup on horrors," and read of some crime committed under circumstances of hitherto unparallelled diabolism, it is not to the Southern journals but to the Northern ones that we would turn to seek it.—Even were the statements contained in this ebullition of radical malignity true, then the obvious conclusion to which every rational mind must arrive, would be torn adrift the radicals who now hold all the offices and completely control affairs in the South, and put respectable men in their places who would not be afraid to vindicate the majesty of the law.—Asheville News.

We understand that a terrible tornado swept across the country in the vicinity of Trinity Church, in this county, on Tuesday evening last doing a great deal of damage. We understand also that a youth, living near the church, (we did not learn his name) was seriously injured by the falling of a tree.—Charlotte Observer.

We understand that Col. Thomas H. Ellis, General Agent of the Piedmont Life Insurance Company of Virginia, has appointed Mrs. Fanny Dowding, of our city, General Soliciting Agent for this State.—It is a proper appointment, and Mr. Ellis could not have made a better selection.—Ib.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—Large quantities of counterfeit paper quarters are being circulated about Fayetteville. They can be distinguished from the genuine 25 cent greenback, by being a little wider and not so long, and by a defect near the eye in the picture of the man's face on front side, and by having the words on the back in large letters. The large figures 25 on the back are nearer the left in the genuine than in the counterfeit. There are many other differences when closely inspected. There seems to be a special agent about here, as the bills are new and come out by the hundred.—Fayetteville Eagle.

ROBBERY.—The smoke-house of W. R. Muse some miles north of Carthage, was entered on the night of 17th inst., and a large quantity of bacon stolen. It was carried off on a blind mule. Pursuit was made; the mule found but no bacon. Some of the robbers will probably be captured.—Ib.

STILL BURNT.—The turpentine still of Mr. R. A. Cole, 8 miles south of Carthage on Little River was burnt last week. Damage not known, but heavy.—Ib.

SNOW EYES.—Ellis, in speaking of the Esquimaux, says: "Their snow eyes, as they very properly call them, are a proof of their sagacity. These are little pieces of wood, bone, or ivory, formed to cover the eyes, and tied on behind the head. They have two slits of the exact length of the eyes, but very narrow. This invention preserves the eyes from snow-blindness, a very dangerous and powerful malady, caused by the action of the light reflected from the snow. The use of these eyes considerably strengthens the sight, and the Esquimaux are so accustomed to them, that when they have a mind to view distant objects, they commonly use them instead of spy-glasses.

RAILROAD MEETING IN SALISBURY.—According to previous notice, at 12 o'clock, M., on Wednesday the 21st inst., a large assembly of the citizens in Rowan and Davie counties met at the Court House in Salisbury.

On motion, Maj. Wm. M. Robbins was called to the Chair, and Dr. C. A. Henderson appointed Secretary. The chairman explained the object of the meeting, and Mayor T. B. Long offered a resolution that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions for the action of the meeting. The following gentlemen were appointed on said Committee, viz: Thos. B. Long, Dr. J. W. Hall, Hon. Burton Craige, Dr. J. H. Fraley, of Rowan, and Col. A. A. Harlan, of Davie. The Committee retired, and, after a brief absence, returned and reported the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The amended charter of the Western Railroad Company authorizes the Directors of said Road to extend the same so as to connect with the North Carolina Road at, or between, Salisbury and Greensboro, and

WHEREAS, The Directors of said Road, at a recent meeting in Fayetteville, have directed the route from the present western terminus of said road to be surveyed to Salisbury, and a report of the same be made to the next meeting of the board to be held in Fayetteville on the 5th day of May, therefore

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this meeting, said Road should connect with the North Carolina and Western N. C. Roads at Salisbury, for the following reasons:

First, That it is a most in an air line from the port of Wilmington, on the Atlantic coast, to the Western terminus of the W. N. C. Road, which is to connect the State with the grand railroad system of the Great West, and consequently much the shortest line from any of our ports to the West.

Second, That so direct a connection with the valley of the Mississippi, and the Great West, will induce such an amount of commerce and travel as will unquestionably make it the most profitable road in North Carolina.

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Rowan and Davie, pledge ourselves that said counties will do all in their power to forward this great enterprise by subscription to its capital stock and otherwise.

Resolved, That we specially invite the attention of the Board of Directors of said Road to the great advantage of this route, as by taking this route the appropriation of $500,000, made for the extension of said Road between the North and South Yadkin Rivers, will be secured.

Pending the consideration of the resolutions, the Hon. J. W. Osborne being called upon, responded in a clear, argumentative, brilliant and appropriate address, demonstrating the absolute necessity of immediate action being taken to secure the location of said Road at Salisbury, so as to connect with the great Western North Carolina Railroad.

At the conclusion of Judge Osborne's speech, Gov. Vance, being called upon, responded in his usual happy, brilliant and most inimitable style, spiced with some most excellent suggestions to the citizens of Salisbury and Rowan County.

At the close of Governor Vance's speech, on motion, the resolutions reported by the committee were unanimously adopted.

On motion, it was resolved, as the sense of this meeting, that we recommend the Commissioners of the counties of Davie and Rowan to take under immediate consideration the propriety of said counties subscribing liberally towards the building of this road.

On motion it was resolved, that the chairman of this meeting be empowered to appoint twenty five delegates to represent us at Fayetteville, or elsewhere, if deemed necessary, and we further recommend that the county of Davie also appoint delegates for the same purpose.

On motion, a resolution of thanks was offered to our friends, Judge Osborne and Gov. Vance, for the interest manifested by them in the welfare of our community and the success of the enterprise.

A further vote of thanks was given to his Honor, Judge J. M. Cloud, for the courtesy shown us in the use of the Court House for the purpose of holding the meeting.

On motion, it was resolved that a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the President and Directors of the Road, and that they be published in the Old North State, with a request that the papers of Fayetteville, Wilmington and Raleigh copy the same.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

WM. M. ROBBINS, Chairman.
C. A. HENDERSON, Secretary.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA.—Havana, April 21.—The Catalonian volunteers, accompanied by a detachment of Mobilized colored troops, sailed for Gibara. Advices from Nuevitas state that Gen. Lesca had arrived there from Puerto Principe. He would take supplies of provisions and ammunition, and return.

Gen. Setona has been appointed to the commanding chief of the Spanish forces in the central department. He has been re-enforced with seven thousand troops from Havana, with which he will commence a vigorous campaign against the insurgents in that department. One of the principal objects of the campaign will be the restoration of railroad communication with Nuevitas.

NEW ORLEANS, April 22.—Supervisor Creecy yesterday seized 19,000 barrels of whisky, about all in the city at wholesale. It is not charged that all has evaded the tax, but the owners must present proof of payment before it is released.

Among "Notes from Rome" in the Pall Mall Gazette, it is stated that "Cardinal Mathieu, Archbishop of Besancon, has lately brought to Rome a considerable number of breech-loaders as a present to the Pontifical Government." Of course these breech-loaders are mere play things. A Pius could have as little use for any other as an Innocent. We all recollect the original breech loader of our early childhood.—And Papa's breech loaders, of course, are only P. pguns.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES, INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

One hundred and thirty clerks will be removed from the Interior Department on the 1st proximo, a large number of them in the Pension Bureau.

Fillibusters are being raised in Mexico to go to Cuba and take part in the fight against Spain. The Mexican style in Cuba will hardly be an improvement.

There are 30,000 gas burners in the streets of Paris, to keep which slight last year cost the city 4,400,000 francs.

Spain lately got rid of one Queen—Queen Isabella—and is likely soon another—"the Queen of the Antilles."—Practice.

Roman Catholic cathedrals are in course of erection at Pekin and Canton, China. The estimated cost of each is $3,000,000.

A sugar and corn plantation of one hundred and seventy acres in Louisiana, nearly equally divided between the two crops, returned a profit last year of $25 000.

The Dayton Ledger, the organ of Mr. Vallandigham, comes out in favor of Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., for the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio.

The report going the rounds of the newspapers that Bishop Odenheimer, of New Jersey, has refused to confirm ladies wearing false hair is publicly denied by authority.

The nomination of Governor Harriman for Naval Officer of Boston is a worse mistake, under all the circumstances, than the election of the Hon. Amos Tuck for the same place in 1861. It continues the mischievous practice of pensioning needy politicians by assigning them to positions for which they have enjoyed no especial training, and for which their previous habits of thought and customs of early life entirely unfit them. No one will assert that General Harriman has the requisite business qualifications for the Naval Office. It is a gross blunder to place a man in that station whose career has been passed among the hills, or in the clerical profession.—Boston Transcript, April 14.

WASHING COMPOUND.

Patented Sept. 24, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREPARING THIS SOAP,

The Patentee claims for this soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woolen goods that their fibres do not contract and fit its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth, the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he rolls into the plan adopted by the and finds just what he wants:

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of the Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest lace to the best blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & MATTHEWS', and see its Wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
